

Policy recommendations

1. Moderate dedicated support for renewables is required to reach the 2030 target of 27% renewables.

2. Benchmarks of how to break down the EU-wide target to member states should be provided in order to encourage sufficiently ambitious pledges.

3. The concept of an Energy Union can be developed further by supporting regional targets for renewables and grid infrastructure.

