

Central and South East Europe Energy Policy Forum:

Regional vision of EU-level renewable energy governance and effort sharing towards 2030

7th June 2016

Venue: The Hungarian Representation of the European Commission EurópaPont, Budapest 1024 Lövőház street 35.

- 8.30 Registration
- 9.00 Welcome by Gábor Zupkó – Head of Representation, Hungarian Representation of the European Commission
- 9.05 Opening by Péter Kaderják – Director of REKK
- 9.15 – 9.45 Keynote Speech - Jos Delbeke, EC-Director General for Climate Action
- 9.45 – 10.00 Gustav Resch (TU Wien): “Towards 2030” dialogue -
Introduction
- 10.00 - 10.25 Mario Ragwitz (Fraunhofer-Institut): Closer look at renewables and opportunities for an Energy Union
- 10.25 – 10.50 Christoph Zehetner (TU Wien): Effective effort sharing through public benchmarks

COFFEE BREAK

- 11.20 – 13.00 Discussion 1: National opinions about the governance and effort sharing proposals
- Participants: High level representatives of CEE countries (Heads of Department and above from HU, CZ, PL, LT, RO, SI, SK)

LUNCH

- 14.00 -15.30 Discussion 2: Interactive Roundtable on the national opinions about the governance and effort sharing proposals
- Moderator: László Szabó (REKK)

COFFEE BREAK

- 16.00 - 16.30 Luis Janeiro (Ecofys): Phase-out of support for mature technologies
- 16.30 - 17.00 Wrap-up of the day

DINNER FOR COUNTRY REPRESENTATIVES